Acceptance Criteria

1 . A library member can register as a member.

-          Member can have access to borrow books

-          Member can request to borrow books

-          Member can pay his overdue fee

2.   A librarian can check-out a book.

-          Librarian can add a time limit for the books return

-          Librarian can take the books out of the inventory.

-          Librarian can check the library-member

3. A librarian can check in a book.

-          Librarian can check the time for books duration of use

-          Librarian can check the library – member info

-          Librarian can add the book to the inventory